

Rebecca Bolton Bridgett, Ed.D.

Current Position: County Administrator, St. Mary's County

Rebecca is responsible for the daily operations of St. Mary's County Government. She supervises the departments of human resources, finance, aging & human services, emergency services & technology, economic development, public works & transportation, public information, recreation & parks, and land use and growth management. Her duties include collaboration with the county legal office, first responders, boards/commissions, and appointed and/or elected leaders.

Experience:

Rebecca has over 25 years of experience in executive leadership serving both locally and statewide. Prior to joining St. Mary's County Government, she held appointed positions with Charles County Government, Charles County Department of Social Services, and the Department of Human Resources. Rebecca served as Director of Human Resources for the Charles County Sheriff's Office. She was elected to the Charles County Board of Education in 2002.

Education:

Doctor in Education from Nova Southeastern University
Master of Arts from Appalachian State University
Bachelor of Arts from Campbell University

Professional Affiliations and Accomplishments:

National Association of Counties (NACo)
Maryland Association of Counties (MACo)
Leadership Maryland, Class of 2016
Leadership Southern Maryland (2014)
University of MD - Academy of Excellence (2013)

Community Involvement:

Rebecca is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church and Charles County Garden Club. She is a Leadership Advocate with Leadership Southern Maryland.