

Frank M. Schenk

Current Position: Federal Account Executive, Autodesk, Inc.

Frank is responsible for the Departments of the Navy, Energy, Homeland Security, and Agriculture Accounts on the Autodesk Federal Solutions Team. Autodesk is a world leader in 3D design, engineering and entertainment software.

Experience: Frank has over 25 years of military experience performing and managing military operations in the area of advanced science and technology. He has held leadership positions in the area of manpower, personnel, training, and education (MPT&E) and wargaming, simulation, and experiential learning.

Military Service: Served in the United States Navy from 1991-2015 initially as a Surface Warfare Officer (SWO) transitioning to the Information Warfare Community (IWC) specializing in Meteorology, Oceanography, and Hydrography.

Education:

University of Southern Mississippi, Masters in Business Administration (MBA)
University of Southern Mississippi, Masters in Hydrographic Science
Naval Postgraduate School, Masters in Meteorology and Physical Oceanography
United States Naval Academy, B.S. Oceanography

Professional Affiliations and Accomplishments: Frank is a member of the Navy League, Naval Institute, American Society of Naval Engineers, National Defense Industrial Association, and the Military Officers Association of America.

Community Involvement: Frank is the President of the Navy Football Brotherhood organization. He lives in Edgewater, MD and is a member of the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, Naval Academy Club, and the Calvert Marine Museum.